RUSSIA LAUNCHES A NEW OFFENSIVE AT FINNS' BORDER

Backed By Heavy Concentration of Soviet Warships and Submarines

SNOWSTORMSHANDICAP

Russian Aviation Active in North; Two Raids Carried Out

By Walter Schwartz
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HELSINGFORS, Dec. 4.—Backed by heavy concentration of Soviet warships and submarines in Finland's Arctic harbors, Russian troops landed in the Far North today and launched a new offensive near the Norwegian frontier.

While snow storms and low visibility restricted military activity in the Carelian Isthmus and elsewhere in the South, bitter new fighting was reported in Petsmo district, after the Russians took Linahamari with landing parties sent by sea from Soviet seaports in the Arctic.

Russian aviation also was active in the North, with two raids being carried out at points near the Norwegian frontier at the very moment the Finnish government of Premier Rytty was making a new peace overture to Moscow.

Salibjervi, near Petsmo, is ablaze, as the result of a Russian onslaught, it was reported. Heavy clouds of smoke blew across the frontier into Norway.

It was estimated that the Russians had landed 3,000 men at Linahamari, most of them by boat, although some were brought into Finnish territory by air.

Finnish troops in the North are determined to resist the invaders to the utmost, an announcement said. Reports received in Helsingfors by way of Kirkenes, Norway, told of Soviet troops and naval concentration in the north areas.

News of outbreaks of fighting in the North followed Finnish claims of sweeping successes over the Russians to the south.

Rescue Squad Has Its Seventh Annual Banquet

CROYDON, Dec. 4.—A number of guest speakers addressed 85 members of Bucks County Rescue Squad, who on Saturday evening sat down to the seventh annual banquet of the organization. The affair was conducted at the Can-Take-It Club, here, a sumptuous turkey dinner being served.

The guests of honor of the evening were: Sheriff William L. Stackhouse, Doylestown; the Hon. Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville; Joseph D. Baker, Bucks County commissioner; Corporal Evans, of Pennsylvania Motor Police; Harold C. Denegar, recording secretary of New Jersey First Aid Council; Robert McGovern and Joseph S. Law, president and recording secretary, respectively, of the Pennsylvania First Aid Council; Dr. Julius Sobel, Bristol. These men, and likewise Jesse Carr, chief of the squad, were speakers of the evening. Congratulatory remarks were addressed to the squad members by the guests.

The toastmaster of the evening was Robert Porter, founder of the organization. Mr. Denegar, the recording secretary of New Jersey Council, on this occasion presented to the Bucks County Squad, a certificate of participation for mobilization work at Long Branch, N. J., on November 18th. Acceptance was by Russell Marshall, president of the squad. Those who had participated in the mobilization are: Messrs. Allen Lebo, Walter Gleason, Louis Beisel, Sr., Harry E. Fawkes.

On a table decked in blue and gold were nine trophies won by the squad in parades. Miss Dolores Founds pleased with dance numbers, and a four-piece orchestra provided music. Merriment about the tables was added to by hats provided for the banqueters and also by balloons. The tables were gaily decorated. Dancing was followed by refreshments. Men and women of both Parkland and Croydon units were in attendance.

Morrisville Miss Becomes The Wife of Bristolian

A Bristol man took as his bride on Sunday a resident of Morrisville. The wedding ceremony which united Miss Josephine Gaston, and John J. Jeffries, son of Mrs. Frances Jeffries, 585 Bath street, was performed in Morrisville Presbyterian Manse, at two p. m., by the pastor, the Rev. Clifford G. Pollock.

Attendants of the couple were Mrs. Helen Peterson, Morrisville; sister of the bride; and Arthur Jeffries, brother of the groom.

The former Miss Gaston wore a street-length dress of light blue silk crepe, a turban of deep pink tone, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Her attendant was garbed in a silk dress of lilac tone, small black hat, and carried yellow roses.

A dinner followed the ceremony, this being served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Jeffries and his bride then left for a trip to New York, where they will remain until Wednesday.

The couple will reside for a time at the home of the bride's parents.

CORNWELLS BRANCH HAS 1100 GARMENTS DISPLAYED

35th Annual Exhibit Takes Place Saturday in Eddington Church House

MRS. SIMONS PRESIDES

EDDINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Cornwells Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, held its 35th annual exhibition of warm garments, many of them hand made, Saturday, in Eddington Presbyterian Church house. There were over 1100 in the collection.

Mrs. Otto Grupp, Jr., Croydon, entertained before the meeting, with the selection, "A Dream." The Rev. Arthur D. Sargis, pastor of the church, led in prayer, followed by a word of greeting to visitors; and words of commendation to all who made such a display possible from president Mrs. Frank A. Simons.

The guest speaker, C. Harold Lowder, composer of many songs, spoke in behalf of work accomplished by Mrs. Ketchum, who is "eighty years young," still active in Kensington Neighborhood House and soup kitchen.

He told of Mrs. Ketchum's remarkable character, she having spent a small private fortune in the work, now having nothing except what folks give out of interest in the work. He said her wonderful work is not limited to one section, but extends all over city, with none ever turned away. Folks are given food, then investigation follows. She has classes of all kinds in which teachers give instruction in sewing, music, etc. Nurses instruct mothers in the care of babies, children, and in personal care.

The Juniors of the Cornwells Branch who raised all money needed to complete nine layettes, held a meeting just as they do when sewing. It was touching to hear the young praying for the world's needs, thanking God for all His blessings, reading His word, and singing songs. They were under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Davis.

Miss Isabella G. Jones told of conditions existing in Labrador, as a result of war, and said "it is up to United States to do double duty."

Mrs. Herman Becker, treasurer, reported a small balance in the treasury. Mrs. C. B. White read report of the secretary. Twelve directors to date have 1100 garments, with more to be brought in.

The interested audience was very appreciative when Mrs. Grupp favored with two more solos, "Leave It With Him" and "My Cathedral."

"THE CHRIST CANDLE"

CROYDON, Dec. 4.—There will be a Christmas play at St. Thomas Aquinas parochial school, Sunday afternoon, December 17th, at three o'clock. The school children will present "The Christ Candle."

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. William Priestley, Cedar and Walnut streets, is a patient in Harrison Hospital, being removed there Saturday by the rescue squad.

Has A Chip On His Wooden Shoulder

(By "The Stroller") "Charles, Jr.," is complaining. He got no turkey.

He attended a banquet with his "Pop" on Saturday evening, and thinks he was ill-treated.

'Twas this way: A father and son banquet was scheduled by a local organization. And a well-known Charlie in town had no son to accompany him. Then a bright idea struck. Why not take "Charlie McCarthy" as "Charlie, Jr.?" So triumphantly they entered, with "Charlie, Jr.," having a hat of the order perched on his head. He made his polite greetings to all the men-folk, tried to be a credit to his "Dad" in all he did and said, then was promptly tossed outside to wait until the banquet was over.

"Tain't right," he is muttering over and over to himself today.

Guffey On Stand

Harrisburg, Dec. 4.—U. S. Senator Joseph F. Guffey, Pennsylvania's top ranking Democrat, testified as a defense witness today in the blackmail-conspiracy trial of Democratic state chairman David L. Lawrence.

Guffey followed to the stand Edward W. Pendergast, former secretary to ex-governor George H. Earle, after court over-ruled a defense motion for removal of a juror.

Senator Guffey denied knowledge of a meeting in Philadelphia in 1936, in which the late John Berona, Pittsburgh politician was "promised" the gravel business in western Pennsylvania as a Commonwealth witness charged.

Germans Plan New Campaign

Berlin, Dec. 4.—A three-fold naval campaign designed to throttle British trade was announced by the German high command in reprisal for British seizure of German exports. Every ship to England will be on its "death dive" was a slogan coined by the Admiralty as German officialdom united in denying claims from London that British planes had scored a victory in a raid on Heligoland yesterday.

The Germans said: "No cruiser was hit because no cruiser is stationed at Heligoland. The British succeeded only in sinking a fishing trawler."

The revived German naval campaign against England is expected to take these forms:

1. A ring of mines all around the British Isles.
 2. Creation of a circle of "forbidden zones." Unrestricted submarine warfare will be carried out.
 3. Increased U-boat activities throughout British waters.
- Germany intensified its effort to dissuade neutral nations from sending its ships to England, by emphasizing the risk involved. British seaplanes can easily send mines in the shipping lanes, a spokesman declared, while the so-called "magnetic mines are capable of exploding far below the keel of any steel vessel." As a result, it was said, England is now being compelled to replace the keels of all her war vessels.

MARRIAGE APPLICANTS HAILED FROM 11 STATES

Largest November Total in Years is Chalked Up At Bucks License Bureau

SEE 1939 A BIG YEAR

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 4.—A record business in marriage licenses is expected when the total is chalked up for Bucks County at the end of 1939. A large crop was brought out in November business, there being 228 couples applying for licenses, this comparing favorably to the 169 who sought such a year ago.

This is the largest November in the history of the Bucks county bureau, the second largest eleventh month being in 1934 when 181 couples were granted licenses.

The Bucks county marriage license bureau has become so popular that for two months straight new high records have been established. When the final count is made on December 30th, there is no doubt now that the 1939 business will make other years look like a piker.

So far this year a total of 2776 marriage licenses have been granted compared to 1828 for the year 1938, with one month to go. The largest year in

Here and There in Bucks County Towns

Earl J. Nuss, Sellersville restaurant clerk, who was convicted of involuntary manslaughter on May 25 this year but recommended for mercy, was sentenced by President Judge Hiram H. Keller to pay a fine of $250 and was placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay the costs amounting to $52.24. The Court permitted Nuss to pay the fine in installments.

After Nuss had been convicted last May, he applied for a new trial, but this motion was later withdrawn and Nuss appeared in Doylestown court for sentence.

Nuss was arrested after his automobile had struck and killed John Purdy, Hilltown township, on the night of April 15th, on the Bethlehem pike. Purdy was standing beside his automobile when he was struck by the Nuss car.

Raymond Lloyd, instructor of vocational agriculture in Springfield High School, has decided to begin evening classes in agriculture for the farmers of Doylestown who are interested, next Tuesday evening, in the agriculture class room.

Similar classes were conducted for ten weeks last year and were quite popular, especially among the young farmers.

MAKING PLANS NOW FOR TAKING OF THE CENSUS

Population Census Not To Start Until About April 1st

DIVIDED INTO SECTIONS

Preliminary plans are being made to take the 1940 decennial census in Bristol and surrounding area.

Censuses of business and manufacturing and mines and quarries will start January 2nd, and will require about six months for taking.

Censuses of population, agriculture, and housing will start April 1st, and will be completed in approximately one month.

The working unit in the vast task of census-taking will be the census district. There will be about 560 of these census districts, corresponding generally to congressional districts except where the most efficient administration requires variance. A district supervisor will be in charge of each census district. He will open a local office late in December, or early in January, and employ the necessary staff to take the census in his district.

To train the 560 district supervisors in census-taking and census procedures, a picked group of more than 100 men from all parts of the country is now being given a special course

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

"Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc."

Beside it, the outrageous assault upon Poland seemed more defensible; the German excuses appear less brazenly mendacious. This attack upon a fine little nation whose only policy was to mind its own business and avoid trouble with its neighbors is the cowardly act of a lying bully.

IF, as estimated, ninety per cent. of the American people were shocked at the wrecking of Poland and are anti-Hitler in feeling, certainly close to one hundred per cent regard the Finnish invasion as utterly indefensible. In all our population the only element which does not hold this assault as abhorrent is made up of members of the Communist party in America and the "fellow-travelers" who hide their Communist affiliations by joining organizations with high-sounding, sentimental names designed to appeal to the soggy mentalities of well-meaning but undiscriminating "humanitarians"—male and female.

IT IS not likely that this latest European development will increase the chances of our getting into the war. Neither our sympathy nor our indignation will dilute the desire of the American people to keep free of the conflict across the Atlantic—rather the reverse. But it is certain to increase general distaste for the activities of the American Communists, whether or open as in the case of Comrade Browder and the Daily Worker, or camouflaged behind labor-union

Morrisville Man Hurt When Run Down By Car

MORRISVILLE, Dec. 4.—Andrew Pendak, 50 years old, of 432 Washington street, was seriously injured Saturday night when he was struck by an automobile as he was changing a tire on his car.

The victim was knocked 20 feet by the impact and was hurried to the office of Dr. Theodore Cohen where first-aid was given. He was then rushed to St. Francis Hospital where it was found that he had suffered a possible fractured skull and several broken ribs.

The driver of the car was Stephen Galumbos, of Central avenue, Morrisville. An investigation is being made by Officer James Walsh.

SUICIDE IS FOUND BY MUSHROOM PICKERS

Man Still Clutched Revolver; Shot in Temple and Through Breast

DEAD ABOUT TWO DAYS

Shot twice, through the temple and breast, the body of a man as yet unidentified, was found in Balderson's woods, near the Yardley-Dollington Road, yesterday.

The gruesome discovery of the man, said to be a suicide, was made by two Trenton men who said they were hunting mushrooms. They are Anthony A. Fucillo, 227 Pearl street, and John Pasta, 205½ Hamilton avenue.

The victim was seated in an upright position against a tree, the 32 revolver still clutched in his hand. A hole in his temple and another in his chest told the story. It is believed he had been dead about two days, examination being made by Bucks County coroner, Dr. H. Clayton Moyer. The body was removed to the morgue of Stacy B. Brown, Newtown.

The man is described as five feet, seven inches tall, weight between 140 or 150 pounds, blue eyes, reddish brown hair and mustache. He wore a brown coat and vest, black trousers, high black shoes, brown hat. On his belt was the initial "J." His upper teeth were false, and he wore porous plaster on his left side and on his back between his shoulders. The man is believed to be between 55 and 60 years of age.

Corporal Evans and Private C. Jones, of Oxford Valley barracks, Pennsylvania Motor Police, investigated.

A Masonic gathering for fathers and sons, on Saturday evening, attracted 189 men, who after a sumptuous turkey banquet in the Masonic hall, headquarters of Bristol Lodge, No. 25, enjoyed an excellent program.

Motion pictures shown were "The Haunted Ship," "Feminine Flashes," "The New Half-Back," Paul H. Isenbarger, magician from the University of Pennsylvania, mystified the group; and benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Arthur F. Gibson, Eddington. The dinner was served by the Bristol Methodist Sunday School class taught by Miss Anna Heritage.

Charge Two Men With Taking Candles From Shrines

Two men were committed to the Bucks County Jail, Doylestown, yesterday for 30 days after being charged with taking candles from the shrine buildings in front of St. Thomas Aquinas Church, Croydon. The men were fingerprinted and the prints were sent to Washington for identification.

The men gave their names as David Barber and Anthony Krysiak. Both gave Philadelphia addresses. They were arrested by Constable Relly, Bristol Township.

Relly happened to be near the church Saturday night and his attention was attracted to the two men as they entered the shrine buildings. Poor boxes in the shrine buildings have been looted a number of times recently.

When the men came from the buildings they offered to sell candles to children. The police believe they were trying to get money with which to buy drink.

The pair was given a hearing before Justice of Peace James Laughlin and sent to jail for 30 days. They had 10 candles in their possession which had never been lighted.

Langhorne Man Weds Clifton Miss in Hulmeville Church

HULMEVILLE, Dec. 4.—A large company of relatives and friends witnessed the wedding ceremony in Grace Episcopal Church, Saturday at four o'clock, which united Miss Irene Dunkley, Clifton, N. J., and Edgar Russell Paxson, Langhorne.

The bride, a former resident of South Langhorne, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunkley, Clifton; and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell N. Paxson, 130 E. Marshall avenue, Langhorne.

The officiating clergyman was the vicar of Grace Church, the Rev. Louis E. Fifer. Presiding at the organ console was Mrs. Harry Friedrich, Langhorne, who played the wedding marches, and also selections prior to and during the ceremony. The soloist, Arthur McCarthy, Croydon, gave as vocal numbers "Because" and "O Promise Me."

Attending the former Miss Dunkley as bridesmaid was Miss Rita Seifert, South Langhorne; and the maid of honor was Miss Vera Dunkley, South Langhorne, a sister of the bride. Serving Mr. Paxson as best man was Robert Carter, Bridgetown; the ushers being Leonard Paxson, a brother of the groom, and Clarence Craven, both of Langhorne; and Edwin H. Webster.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a tight bodice, long sleeves, and long full skirt with a train. With this was worn a long veil, and she carried a white prayer book with small white flowers attached to ribbon streamers.

Miss Seifert chose for her costume a dress of a long-skirted deep-toned pink, silk, and Miss Vera Dunkley wore a similar model in aqua shade. Each of these attendants wore small coronets with face veils to match their gowns, and carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers.

A small reception followed the ceremony, this being at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowen, South Langhorne. A motor trip to Southern States is being participated in by the newlyweds, who will reside with the groom's parents in Langhorne.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Paxson are graduates of Langhorne-Middletown high school.

THE HUMANE CHRISTMAS

Comes now the holiday buying season, when Americans are going to spend a large sum of money for gifts and other purchases. There is one feature of this buying period to which people should give more consideration. That is the overwork they create for store and post office employees and others who must handle this trade.

There must be a large number of people each year who get all tired out because of this mountain of extra work. There are millions of people who during this period have to do twice as much work as usual. It is inevitable, therefore, that some should become the worse for the rough going.

The work is so constant and incessant on many jobs at this time that there is no relief from the tension. Only the most vigorous can work in that manner without suffering ill effects.

Christmas is the period of peace and good will to men. There does not seem much peace and good will in the scenes often witnessed during this period. People growling because they are not instantly waited on, folk standing in line, hurry, push and scurry—where is the good will?

People start out to make their Christmas purchases with a real desire to give happiness. The gifts they select create that pleasure and satisfaction, but they should think of the work they make, for others.

The way to do that is to begin Christmas shopping early and spread it over a wider period. If people generally will do that, store and postal workers, truckmen, expressmen, etc., will be so surprised you could knock them over with a feather.

TAKE IT EASY

This is the time of year to take it easy. For that matter, any time, in these years of strain and the rush of daily living is appropriate for a reminder to oneself that health benefits from a deceleration. Overcoat weather is here now, though, and with lower temperatures comes the demand for a greater expenditure of energy. The heart labors harder and it becomes more susceptible to failure if the imposition is too great.

Cardiac troubles cause about a third more deaths during winter months than during warmer seasons. In the summer, the heart fatality rate in this country is some 25,000. The figure is approximately 33,000 in the winter. The rate of energy output is the principal determinant of heart action. Climbing a ten-foot flight of stairs, a 150-pound man expends 1,500 foot pounds of energy. If the climb is accomplished in a half-minute, the rate of expenditure is roughly twice that of a brisk walk. But if the top is reached in twenty seconds, the man almost doubles the rate at which his body works; if he climbs in ten seconds, he makes the strain six or seven times that of walking.

When the weather is cold, one cat more, walks faster, generally moves more quickly. The temperature is conducive to physical strains. The heart more easily becomes overtaxed. Middle-aged and elderly persons especially should make conscious efforts to slow up.

Health and outlook improve when man takes it easy. After all, it's his life.

"Get a load of this" is a timely nifty when dragging a shotgun through a fence.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

By Courier Staff Member

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol May 2, 1878. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

A change has taken place in the firm of Gordon, Groff & Co. Mr. William F. Groff has retired from the partnership and has left Bristol, and gone to his home in Trenton; his interest was purchased by James A. Smith, of Amboy, N. J., and the business is now conducted under the name of Smith, Groff & Co. . . .

The success of the first concert for the benefit of the library is a warrant for the success of those which will follow. The next one will take place on the 10th instant, when the University Glee Club, of Philadelphia, will be present and sing. Everybody has heard of how lustily college boys can sing, but not every one has had the privilege of listening to them. . . .

Last Saturday, at Doylestown, licenses were granted to the various hotels and restaurants where licenses had been granted before, but all applications for new licenses were laid over until the June adjourned court. Remonstrances were filed against a few hotels and restaurants, but the most notable one was from Bristol, signed by almost 800 people, against granting license to any person in the borough, but the court stated that no notice could be taken of it because no specific reason was alleged, as it was the duty of the court to grant licenses, except where remonstrances are filed containing legal objections. . . .

H. Clay Beatty Post, G. A. R., will be visited by the Inspector General of the order in this State on the evening of the 21st instant; he will be accompanied by Post No. 2, of Philadelphia, and a delegation from Col. E. D. Baker Post, No. 8. They will come up on a tug-boat and will have a band of music with them, and will doubtless make things lively; as they will be about 100 strong.

The funeral of Elvina, wife of John A. English, formerly of Bristol, took place on Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended. Interment at the Episcopal grave-yard, Rebecca P. Osmond, widow of the late William Osmond, was buried the same afternoon; she was in the 72nd year of her age.

Mahlon Gibbs, of Solebury, the first colored juror ever drawn in Bucks county, was in attendance at court this week.

Rev. William C. Hendrickson is district and securing agent of the U. B. Mutual Aid Society of this State, for Burlington, Mercer, Ocean and Monmouth counties, N. J., and Bucks and Northampton counties, Pa., with his offices at Bristol.

Henry Chew was fished in his hand by a cat-fish last week, and his hand and arm are now very much swollen and there are fears that lockjaw will result from the wound.

Mrs. Hay, residing on Dorrance street, was on Saturday struck on the head by a brick which fell from the chimney, injuring her quite seriously.

John D. Sailer has opened his restaurant and ice cream saloon, corner of Mill and Cedar streets.

Two other large salmon have been taken in the Delaware. A 22-pounder was caught at Salem last week, and immediately forwarded to Gov. McClellan, at Trenton.

Daniel Githens keeps his bateau over by Bunker Hill, and on Sunday five youths borrowed it clandestinely and went on a voyage of discovery down the river. Mr. Githens did not discover the absence of his boat until about four o'clock in the afternoon, when he saw it and its crew on their way across the river. To get another boat and overhaul the runaways was the work of a few minutes. They were near the marsh when overtaken, and jumping in his boat, Mr. Githens, who was in no amiable mood, took the boys one after another and pitched them head over heels into the water which, as he knew, was very shallow, but the boys were pretty badly scared, and as soon as they had recovered their presence of mind started for the shore in double-quick time, thinking they were not yet out of the clutches of their pursuer. They will inquire who the owner of the next boat is that they wish to appropriate. . . .

Making Plans Now For Taking Of The Census

of instruction in Washington. Those who pass the examination will be sent out as area managers to the 103 census areas, each to direct the training of from five to seven district supervisors and to act as regional managers between them and the census bureau in Washington.

The 560 districts have been broken into enumeration districts of which there will be 143,000. Generally speaking, there will be one enumerator in each of these districts, but in certain regions one enumerator will cover more than one district. There, about 121,000 enumerators will be used for the population and farm census. These enumerators, as well as clerks, stenographers, interpreters and other field workers, will not be selected until 1940. They will be selected locally. Applicants should not write to Washington. Tests will be given in the local offices, however, to determine the qualifications of applicants.

Men and women will be eligible for census work on equal terms. War veterans or their widows are given preference when equally well qualified with others.

Census workers will be required to devote full time to census work, and will be subject to the Hatch Act, specifically forbidding Federal employees from taking any active part in political management or in political campaigns during the entire period of their employment by the Census Bureau.

Evening Church Wedding Is Of Interest To Many Here

In Bristol Presbyterian Church, an attractive wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at six o'clock, when Miss Eleanor V. Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Dyer, 257 Madison street, became the bride of Elwood M. Hazel, son of Mrs. Anna Hazel, 246 Madison street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James R. Gately, pastor of the church, in the presence of many relatives and friends. The church was decorated with palms. Mrs. M. D. Weagley, organist, played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church. Mrs. DeRoy Ott sang "At Dawning" and "Because."

The maid of honor was Miss Doris Barr, 257 Madison street, a cousin of the bride; the bridesmaids were Miss Jane Lynch, 244 Madison street, a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Joseph Ryan, Radcliffe street, Miss Anna Keers, 1528 Trenton avenue, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Raymond Firman, Emilie. The best man was Albert Hazel, Frankford, brother of the groom. The ushers included Kenneth Dyer, brother of the bride, Joseph Ryan, Radcliffe street, John McCauley, and Harry Waejen, Philadelphia, cousins of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white velvet, fashioned with a high cut neckline, shirred bodice trimmed with orange blossoms, long sleeves cut full to the elbow; long full skirt entrain. The bridal veil of tulle was attached to a velvet crown, and she wore white satin slippers, and carried white roses.

Miss Barr wore peach moire taffeta, with square neckline, short puffed sleeves, shirred bodice and long full skirt with bustle back and short train; tiara of peach tone flowers with satin ribbon bow and streamers, peach satin slippers, and she carried talisman roses.

The bridesmaids' dresses were fashioned alike, but different in color. The dresses had square necklines, short puffed sleeves and long full hoop skirts, with short trains. The front of the bodices and the back of the skirts were trimmed with velvet bows. Miss Lynch and Mrs. Ryan wore Spanish Raisin taffeta with dubonnet velvet bows; Miss Keers and Mrs. Firman wore peacock blue taffeta with dark blue velvet bows. Each bridesmaid wore a tiara of flowers to match their gown, trimmed with a bow and streamers the tone of the velvet on their gowns. Their slippers were the tone of their gowns and each maid carried yellow roses.

A reception was held in F. P. A. Hall, a buffet supper being served to 130 guests. The couple left Saturday evening for a motor trip to South Carolina. The bride travelled in a black cloth tailored suit with red accessories. They will reside with the groom's mother.

The mother of the bride chose for her attire plum tone velvet with turban to match, white gloves, and a corsage of yellow roses. The mother of the groom wore wine brocade velvet and hat to match, white gloves and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Hazel was born in Bristol, graduated from Bristol high school in 1935, and from Rider Business College in 1938. Mr. Hazel graduated from Frankford high school, and is manager of the Girard Investment Company, Mill street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson Black, 255 Madison street, entertained Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Black's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Atkinson, Riverton, N. J.

MORRISVILLE TIES BRISTOL FOR LOWER BUCKS COUNTY TITLE

Bulldogs Defeat Langhorne
By the Score of 14 to 0

ELEVEN SENIORS START

Junior Team Did All The Scoring of The Uneven
Contest

MORRISVILLE, Dec. 4—A handful of spectators who braved the steady downpour of rain all afternoon watched Morrisville High shutout the Langhorne Redskins here Saturday afternoon, 14-0, and thereby earn a tie for the Lower Bucks Conference grid championship with Bristol High.

Coach John Hoffman's boys scored in the second and fourth periods to put the finishing touches on the worst season coach Charlie Beck has ever experienced at Langhorne. The Redskins had the perfect, unorthodox record of no victories in eight games in which they failed to score a single point as compared to a 166 point total which the opposition rolled up.

The Bulldog mentor started all 11 Seniors who were making their "swansong" for the Blue and the Gold on the gridiron. However, the Senior team was unable to count on the Redskins. But they did set up the situation that led to their first score in the second chapter which was eventually tallied by the Junior team with Bob Purcell, big fullback, finally plunging over from the 3 yard line after which Chick McAllister added the extra point on a pass from Harry Wilcox.

After repulsing the Redskins' only threat at the end of the third and beginning of the fourth periods, the Bulldogs marched from their own 18 to score. The drive was interrupted by punt exchanges on two occasions, but then Red Thorn galloped around his own left end and raced yards to put the ball on Langhorne's eight yard line. Bill Talone went over from the 2 yard stripe two plays later to score his first touchdown in his entire high school career even in spite of the fact he has been a varsity back for three years—and fittingly it came in the Bulldogs final game of the season and was their last score of the campaign.

ON THE SCREENS

GRAND THEATRE

While twin babies are usually sought for closeup movie scenes, Director Tay Garnett had the co-operation of the screen's first acting triplets in filming domestic sequences for Walter Wanger's "Eternally Yours," co-starring Loretta Young and David Niven, and now on view at the Grand Theatre through United Artists release.

Casting Director Bobbie Webb brought the Alhambra triplets, Jean, Joan and Janet Ketterling to the "Eternally Yours" set and established a new high in service. The Ketterling babies had not appeared in a picture before and more surprised than Director Garnett was Mrs. Ketterling when Baby Jean was so amiable and so attentive during four scenes that Joan and Janet were not needed.

BRISTOL THEATRE

Definitely, one of the finest prison pictures ever to come out of Hollywood, Monogram's thrilling "Muthy in the Big House" shows today at the Bristol Theatre.

Charles Bickford and Barton MacLane are co-starred in this powerful film and both give splendid performances.

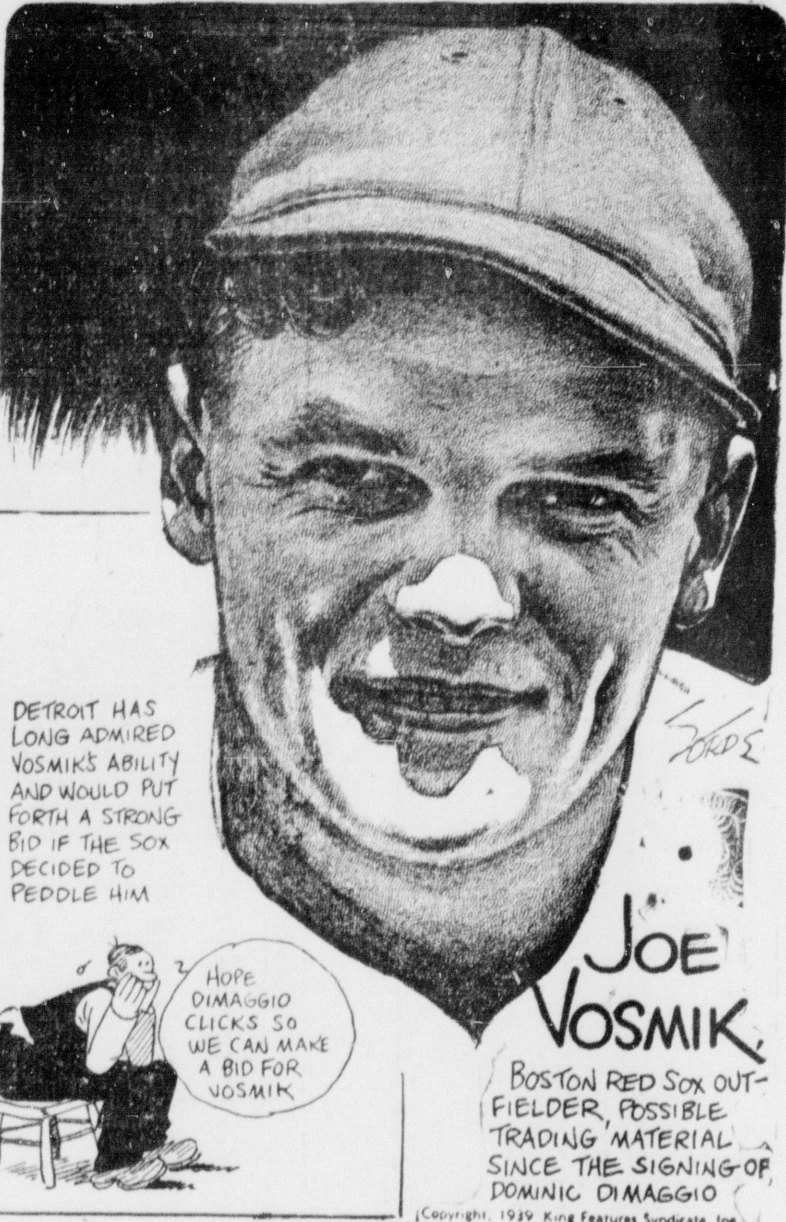

Here is a film, superbly acted, directed and photographed, which will have you gasping in open-mouthed amazement at its stark, gripping realism.

RITZ THEATRE

Rouben Mamoulian, who directed "The Sign of the Cross" in Columbia's "The Sign of the Cross," now at the Ritz Theatre, thinks Miss Stanwyck one of the best actresses on the screen.

Adolphe Menjou, who shares stellar honors in the screen version of the "Hooded Odessa" play, regards Miss Stanwyck as one of Hollywood's "real" trouper. And William Holden, a young unknown making his screen debut in the title role of this sensational drama of a musician who abandons art for prize-ring triumph, considers Miss Stanwyck both friend and advisor.

DIAMOND ELEVEN WINS OVER S. LANGHORNE ACES

Hitting on all cylinders, the Diamond football eleven trounced the South Langhorne Aces yesterday afternoon on the latter's field. Final score was 21-0.

The Andalusia offensive worked to near-perfection as they ripped off a total of eighteen first downs to the Langhorne two. The ball was in Diamond's possession most of the tilt and Langhorne was forced to do more kicking than running of the ball.

The first six-point play for the Diamantians came in the first session when Eddie Effing broke loose on an off-tackle slant and raced 35 yards to score. Bob Lange scored a touchdown in the third period, getting off on a triple-reverse for a 42 yard run. The final touchdown came in the last period with Scarborough running 45 yards on a double-reverse. Jack Scarborough kicked the three extra points.

Stars on the defense for the winners were Captain Jungmann and Cunningham while for the losers Morasch and Edjys excelled.

Diamond is now claiming a deadlock for the Bucks County championship. Claiming six points, the same number that are held by Falls Alumn.

Manager Calvin Freas and Coach Diamanti claim that the managers of the circuit stated that if Langhorne was played by all three teams then the points would count in the conference.

Coaches of Lower Bucks County Schools Meet Tonight

LANGHORNE, Dec. 4—The annual December confab of the Lower Bucks County scholastic athletic association will meet in what may be an all-important meeting in the Langhorne High school here this evening.

It will mark the most important session for the coaches in many years. In fact, it may mark a new trend in athletics and relationships among the schools as a result of the business to be transacted.

The meeting has taken on such an importance that it was necessary for the coaches to call in the principals of the various schools to discuss an all-important athletic event which the coaches themselves were unable to handle alone. That, of course, is the prospective "Lower Bucks Scholastic Track and Field Meet."

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS

Miss Margaret Brennan, St. Elizabeth's Convent, was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital, Philadelphia, by Bucks County Rescue Squad. She will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Bensalem Student Named For Contest

Betty Judd, Bensalem Township high school, is listed among the 22 high school students selected for the annual Junior-Senior Reading and Speaking Festival of the Cultural Olympics, it was announced yesterday by Dr. Frederick C. Gruber, of the University of Pennsylvania.

The participants were chosen from a group of 70 who were given auditions November 22. The event, first of four in the speech and literature phase of the Olympics, will be held at Hous-ton Hall, 3417 Spruce street.

Miss Judd will be among nine to take part in the non-original poetry reading.

CROCHETS GARMENTS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—(INS)—William Wagner, a student at St. Joseph's Academy in San Antonio, keeps down clothing bills by crocheting his own garments. He has made himself a pair of trousers, sweater, and a shirt. Now he's working on a bedspread.

DE RISI CONFIDENT HIS TEAM WILL WIN TONIGHT

Manager Mike DeRisi of the Falls Alumni basketball team feels that the winning streak of the Grundy five will come to a halt tonight when his club meets the wooden twisters in the first game scheduled on the Italian Mutual Aid floor. In the second game, the Celtics will meet the Profy's team.

The DeRisians have dropped both games played thus far this season and each by a margin of a point. The Alumni boys are not disheartened and know that they can beat most of the clubs in the loop. Grundy's is undefeated and is leading the loop while the Falls boys are in the cellar.

Couch DeRisi will start Duerr, Briggie, Lovett, Roberts and Jadlocki while Manager Hermann will begin his two Morrisville stars, Buckman and Zack, Vanzant, Narcisi and Bill Gallagher.

The Celts will look much better now that they have a good pivot man in Frankie Welsh, Welsh was the whole club as the Deliamen dropped a close tilt to Manhattan and now Delta has signed Jimmy Massilla and Joe McGee who will also aid his reserve strength.

The Profy team scored a notable triumph last week when it took the measure of the Rohm and Haas in an extra period game. It expects little trouble with the Celtics although the fans feel differently about the game.

Opening tap-off will take place at eight o'clock sharp.

the history of Bucks county marriage license business was transacted in 1934, when 2558 couples were granted licenses, so that without waiting until January 1, the bureau today announces a new all-time record for one year.

Approximately 75 per cent of the November applicants came from New Jersey and Philadelphia. There were 19 applicants in November who had been divorced. Approximately 85 per cent of the couples, the usual average for months other than May and June, were married by Justices of the Peace at civil ceremonies.

The applicants in November came from 11 states as far west as California. More than one-half of the female applicants had occupations other than housework. The average age of the male applicants in November was 26 while the females averaged 25. Only 16 applicants were under 20 out of the total of 456 individuals.

With 25 more days remaining to get in on the 1939 marriage license record, highways leading into Doylestown continue to be the most popular honeymoon lanes in this section of the state.

IT, of course, would be unfortunate if this foul assault of the Russian forces upon Finland should so inflame public sentiment here as to bring about anything in the way of persecution. What the Communists have done in Finland is no excuse for "reprisals" here. This is not the time and there is no occasion for an indiscriminate Red hunt in which innocent, misguided and moronic people would certainly suffer along with the offensive agitators and the sinister leaders with direct or indirect attachment to Moscow.

NEVERTHELESS, it seems a particularly good time for people in prominent positions to refrain from encouragement of individuals or organizations which, if not actively Communist, have a Communist flavor and tolerance, or are even charged with having such. A number of witnesses before the Dies committee have sworn that the so-called American Youth Congress is saturated with Communism and more or less under the wing of the Communist party. The leaders of the organization heatedly deny these charges. It is easier to see a motive for the denial than it is to see one for the charges. Denial of Communist affiliation is routine strategy of the Communist party, followed all along the line.

BUT, regardless of the merits of the allegations, it seems unnecessary for the wife of the President to publicly appear with the leaders of the Congress at a committee hearing, endorse by implication their demand for the abandonment of the Dies committee and take them all to lunch at the White House. Mrs. Roosevelt is to be admired for her loyalty to her friends and for her courage in standing by them, but it is a pity she does not use better judgment in selecting them. She is, of course, good, but is it wise to so completely equip with White House prestige and her own, people charged with being linked, even as dupes and no matter how remotely with the Stalin dictatorship, the sheer brutality of which the world has so recently witnessed,

NO one, of course, thinks Mrs. Roosevelt tinged with Communism; but certainly her good impulses have led her, in the case, for example, of the Workers Alliance, whose Communist origin, saturation and control has not even been denied, to address conventions and express sympathetic understanding which have greatly pleased the leaders of these organizations. As to the Dies committee and the demand for its discontinuance which she clearly endorses by her partisanship for those who make the demand—that is not justified by the facts.

THE Dies committee may have made mistakes, but no prejudiced person who has followed the record will deny that it has rendered a distinct national service.
